9th October - 5th November

The Journey Continues - Watercolour and Pastels (portraits, landscapes and rivers)

I became deeply interested in painting while on secondment in Vancouver. They had a great library with loads of art books including one titled 'You too can paint'. I went straight out and bought art materials and paper. I joined DTAS on my return in 2002 and have benefitted greatly from their tutors: Ron Muller taught me how to do a real wash and capture the beauty of the landscape, Joe Attard showed me how to develop pastels to a polished state and John Orlando Birt reignited my love of watercolour. I hope you enjoy examples of my art from the last 17 years. There are 19 examples on display.

Official Opening Sunday 13th from 1:00 - 4:00 pm

Members' Website Gallery

Attention fellow artists!

Do you know you can now post images of your artworks on the DTAS web site?
If you would like to add some of your works to the online gallery, send an email to:

admin@doncastertemplestoweartistsociety.org.au

with up to 10 works. You can also send an artist's statement and when we get sufficient works we will re-organise the Members' Gallery to include the artist as individual pages with pictures and artistic bio.

Chris

Web Site Co-ordinator

Vale

The Committee and members of DTAS wish to express their sincere sympathy to Margaret Petersen on the passing of her husband.

Thanks

'Thank you' to Christine Roach, who has donated 100 books from her mother, Judy Waalwyk Kubell's collection. Judy, a past member of DTAS, will be remembered by many members. These will be a great addition to our reference library.

The Gallery Display Cabinet

Porcelain by Maureen Bowman will be on display
from October 9th - November 11th.

Colours for Yupo

In answer to inquiries following Moira Treacher's
Yupo demonstration:

The red used was Grumbucher red, which is no longer available. but any strong red mixed with a strong pink should give similar results. All other colours were Windsor & Newton aureolin yellow, cobalt blue, with phthalocyanine blue for extra depth.
